THE REDS ARE DESTROYING SPAIN!!! (9/5/23)

THE TERRORIST PEDRO SANCHEZ IS BETRAYING SPAIN BY LETTING IMMIGRANTS ENTER THE COUNTRY, .

Doggy Sanchez has opened the doors of the Morocco border and is inciting terrorists to enter Spain.

He is also giving the Spanish Gold to the drug addicts of the streets who don't work to let them continue with their drug addiction and promotes the unemployment of the people by giving them the money of the Spanish workers who carry the economy of the country.

for further details, we have our reporter NAME in Sevilla:

-Thanks for your Introduction, NAME. Yes, as you said, I'm here in the Andalusian Capital where drug addicted criminal immigrants are more common in Spain. As we can see here on the ground, we have a Moroccan immigrant WHICH sure has drugged himself in the past 24 hours and will commit some type of crime like some kind of harassment to some young Spanish lady. (Makes like the man on the floor wants to attack the lady but the man is chilling, and the reporters make a scene).

-After the reporter finishes the scene- processes to interview the lady:

REPORTER: How did you feel about this criminal attack?

LADY: Which attack, sir?

Reporter: The one that has just happened: this man tried to harass you and I saved you!

LADY: What do you mean, fucking racist? This man was begging for money and you just started screaming at him.

-They both start yelling at each other (some hit can be seen maybe?)-

NEWSREADER: Well, it seems we have some kind of problem with a radical Feminazi lady so we are going to cut our connection. And continue with the next piece of news.

CULTURE

A new tradition

Madrid- This year for the first time, on the 7th of July, we'll be able to watch a different bull race in Pamplona. This time it won't be with capas, which are the red flags that are used to control the bull, but this occasion it will be with republicans, which are the same red as capas.

-Two years ago, a loyal fan of bull races started a revolution by suggesting an idea that caused a lot of controversy. He wanted to start using the republicans as red flags, because he thought that the bulls would be way angrier at them. All the fans of bull races agreed with him and started a collection of signatures. The president didn't have any other choice than to recognize this new tradition.

-Why did you start this revolution?

"Well, my father always dreamed of this moment, so he would be proud if he was alive. He got killed by a republican, so I guess I'll finally have my revenge", that's what Jacobo López, the man who started this tradition, said.

-And we've asked a few people in the street their opinion about this new tradition.

"It sounds fun. I'm taking my kids to see it this year, for the first time. It will be an amazing gift", said Maria Gutiérrez, a homestay mum.

"I think this is the right choice. We need more bull races and less republicans. Of course I will go to Pamplona to watch it. I can't wait", said José Ramos, a loyal fan of the bull races.

"I'm very excited. Now the people who say that bulls aren't culture can finally shut the **** up" said an angry old woman.

It seems like everyone agrees to this new tradition. There is no complaining and this is the start of a revolution.

PRESENTERS: thank you NAME for this amazing novelty, we are all very grateful to the government for taking this awesome decision.

Isabel Pantoja will do her last tour

-Isabel Pantoja will do her last tour: this well known singer will perform her last tour this year. She announced it last week and there have been 13 suicides already. The singer has not pronounced a word yet, but her fans are hopeful and they are waiting patiently.

-We've interviewed a few loyal fans of hers in the street. We've recognized them because they were wearing t-shirts with her face printed on it.

"I would also kill myself if it wasn't because I have four kids and a husband to feed", said José Antonio García Jiménez, a real Spanish man.

"She was revolutionary. Such an example for little girls. I know someone who have committed suicide because of Isabel's last tour, I can relate, but I have to feed my husband or he'll get very mad" said Isabel Montero Ruiz.

"To be honest, I'm still waiting for her to say that this is a joke. There has been a lot of suicides and it's kinda scary. But while I'm waiting, I cook desserts for my husband, who has supported me in this process", said Mari Carmen Mendoza del Castillo.

"I'm just gonna say "Se me enamora el alma, se me enamora, cada vez que te veo" said Isabel Pantufla, her cousin.

-We can see the sorrow in everyone's words. Isabel will be missed and she will always be an example for everyone in Spain.

HIT 5 BEST SONGS

Madrid- We have the pleasure to share with you the results of the poll about music that we did last week. There are 5 songs considered as the best. Here we go.

-In fifth place we have "Se me enamora el alma" by Isabel Pantoja.

-Then we have "Sí, Sí" by Los Ronaldos.

-In third place we have "Cara al sol" by God José Antonio Primo de Rivera.

-In second place we have "Que viva España" by Manolo Escobar, of course.

-Without doubts, the first place is for... EL HIMNO DE ESPAÑA.

RELIGION

CHRISTIANISM: THE ONLY OFFICIAL RELIGION
(10/05/2023)

ROME-Yesterday, there was a meeting between the king of Spain and the Pope of Rome to select Christianity as the only official religion in Spain. The 1st of June, Christianity will be established as the only religion in Spain. If anyone is caught practicing another religion, they will serve the punishment of praying 3 hours to virgin Mary, and will be nailed to a cross like Jesus Christ.

We are connecting now with XXXXXX, who is going live in the Vatican watching the ceremony. He knows what happened. He says that the fucking republicans have received the news with much hostility, and a Muslim nationwide protest has turned violent, leaving the Pope in a hospital and the king trapped in the palace. Now he is going to do a live interview to the brother of Pope Francisco, Oscar Adrian Bergoglio:

REPORTER: Hi there! I'm in Vatican City and here we have the brother of Francesco I. We will talk about yesterday's incident. Good afternoon, sir, how are you today?

OSCAR: I'm feeling worried about my brother. I'm affected by yesterday's incident.

REPORTER: Do you know the Pope's condition?

OSCAR: I can't visit him because he's being operated on. After the operation I will be able to visit him and know how he's feeling.

REPORTER: What do you think about the Muslim group that hurt the Pope? Do you think that they deserve to be spiritually and socially forgiven?

OSCAR: I think that the Muslim group is a sect from Satan. They don't deserve the pardon; they deserve hell and eternal suffering. My brother is a messenger of God and he shouldn't be hurt.

REPORTER: Well, we are finishing the interview, I've got enough information. Thanks for your time, sir.

GOSSIP

PUYOL AND CASILLAS

MADRID - Last Monday Puyol and Casillas published an instagram post with a photo telling us that they wanted to marry but the church didn't agree with them. In the photo they wrote some discriminatory comments to the church.

In the photo they really transmit annoyance with the situation. They did not agree about the decision, they say that it's their resolution. Now they're trying to marry through the government but they find it difficult because VOX said that it is impossible for two famous mens to marry together, that this will be a disgrace for Spain. So now they don't know what to do, they declare that in Spain it's impossible to love who you want and that this country disrespects people's freedom.

- How do you feel about the decision of the church?

Well we really disagree about this, we think that it's our decision not a decision of the church. For the only reason that we were two boys and not a boy and a girl. It's surreal that nowadays this continues exactly that one century ago. It 's embarrassing!

- For saying this it is better that you don't say anything. Have you thought about taking some medicine?

This is absolute nonsense! Why do we have to appeal to the medication? We don't hurt anyone, we are free to love who we want. The ones who would have to take medicine are you!

- This is absolutely fake.You're a very shitty person! Will you go to live outside to marry together? Because I think that at the moment, no one wants sinners as you.

We have no idea what to do now but the only thing that we know it's that we will get married together here or in another country.

- OK. Go out from Spain.

PABLO IGLESIAS' WIFE IS NO BINARY GENDER

MADRID - Last weekend, Pablo Iglesias' former partner Irene Montero said publicly that she is no binary gender. It was in the "Congreso De Los Diputados" in Madrid during the morning meeting between the MPs and it became public at 12:48 thanks to a tweet from Pablo Iglesias during the meeting.

The other politicians gave their opinion, and a huge part of the parliament highly disagreed with her situation, as if it must be. Some of the people from left parties have supported Irene, but they all have been expelled from the conference. Irene has taken advantage of the situation and has said to the press that Iglesias' ponytail is a wig.

We have with us Pablo Iglesias. Why did you take the decision of humiliating your ex in front of all our country?

- Well, as a Spanish minister, I think that the most accurate action to do for our country was to get rid of Irene because people with ideas such as those destroy the Government. Now that we have elections, the best thing we can do is to demonstrate VOX we are one of them. Even though, if I was not a politician and my life was more private, I wouldn't tell her dark secrets to that huge amount of people.

Then, we can say that you revealed her secret because you want approval from the most important MPs.

- Unfortunately, that's the truth. Working as a politician and not having the power in the Government requires sacrificing so many things in the world. In my case, I took advantage of Irene for making Abascal to trust me more than others. I could talk to him before, and he thanked me for giving him the truth of a person as my ex.

Thank you, Pablo, for talking with us.

Now we are with boor Irene Montero. Why are you no binary knowing the disrespect that causes to our country?

- I have not disrespected anyone; this is my opinion and how I really feel. I know that we can find a lot of different opinions and they all don't agree with me. However, respect is the basic value that people need to have for everything and watching the MPs not letting me or other people to express their identity concludes by having the shit of the country in which we live.

For saying this, it's better for you to shut up. Even though I don't want to talk to someone like you, I need to know the reason for the wig thing.

- If he reveals my secret, what do you expect me to do? To cry and get more humiliated? Are you kidding me? Women must be strong with the actual situation of our country. Obviously, I took revenge for the shitty thing he has done and now everyone knows he is bald. (ensenya la peluca I la pentina) However, this is not as sinful as my situation having those simians in the Government, but he has been so humiliated as well, that was what I wanted.

Ugh, don't talk to me.

(se'n va epicament)

TECHNOLOGY

SPANISH MACHINE BULL (10/05/2023)

Madrid- Last week, some Spanish inventors created a machine that looks like a bull. This machine has one purpose: killing all the illegal immigrants that cross the Mediterranean Sea to reach Spain.

The machine bull is a robot that guards the coasts of the Mediterranean Sea. When he sees an illegal immigrant on the coast he runs after him until he sticks its horns to the illegal immigrant's ass and it doesn't take its horns off until it rips it.

That machine has a recognizing system that separates the illegal immigrants from the common people. He'll never kill Spaniards but maybe some bents or frenchies "rats"

The mechanical bull is a revolutionary invention that will improve our lives and free us from these... let's say "people".

THE CURE FOR THE LGBTIQ+

NEWS READER: A cure to the terrible mental illness of LGBTIQ+ has been found by the Spanish Laboratories. This disease has been transmitted to lots of loyal Spanish men and women through the air. Well, we have prepared for you an informative video on how to prevent the infection of this awful illness and how to deal with it:

-Video enters- good morning, Spaniards! Today we are going to learn about the LBGTIK disease or however it is said. To prevent infection we must wear a hygienic mask and maintain distances from men who wear some Sissy or pink clothes, for infected women we can determine if they are by looking at the colour of their hair or that they don't depilate their corporal hair. But what are we going to do if somehow, we get infected? Well, first we are going to pray to Holy Mary five times, then singing "cara al sol" directed to the photo of Fransico Franco and eating a piece of Spanish tortilla with wine at the end.

NEWSREADER: Pretty accurate informative video, which we are going to review very meticulously each day, for us to be safe from this horrific catastrophe and now we are going to the first hospital which applies this cure for larger information with our reporter NAME:

Reporter: Good afternoon NAME(NEWSREADER) I've come to this hospital for what you said, and here I have an ill patient which is waiting for his friend to be cured and his turn. Well, do you think this treatment is useful?

ILL PACIENT: Well I still don't know if it works or not, we will see it now but I wish it does.

Reporter: And why did you want to be cured? Well I've always felt very Spanish and heterosexual but with Pedro's Sanchez advertisements I got ill very quickly.

CURED PATIENT WALKS IN

CURED PACIENT: You fucking bent! Get away from me! (Runs to the ILL PATIENT and hits it to death) (Reporter visualizes very proud of the result of the cure and claps his hands).

NEWSREADER: So once seen the result, we have finished with this section and will start with the next one.

INTERNATIONAL

THE RUSSIAN WEAPONS HAVE DISAPPEARED

KHÀRKIV - While the Russian army was having a rest, some of the weapons that Russia is using for attacking Ukraine were stolen by a Rumanian, who went to the trench early this morning. It was during the night when this person acted. During the morning, we all saw who was responsible for the robbery because he returned all the material he had stolen.

I'm connecting now with XXXXXX, who is in Khàrkiv with the principal person involved in this situation.

We are here in the war, and we have talked to the Rumanian responsible for the robbery. He has explained to us that there were some rumours about the Russian bombs and bullets used were made of copper, that it's a material that attaches to the Rumanian people. He took advantage of that and went to the Russian territory to steal some copper.

Here we are talking to David Benefolvan, the responsible of this illegality. David, why have you trusted the rumours?

- Well, as philosophers say, there's only one life and we must do whatever we want. I love mysteries and I thought looking for the Russian weapons was a very exciting challenge.

What was your reaction when you saw that the rumour was not true?

- It was like the emoji with the hands in the cheeks and with the eyes and the mouth so open: (l'interpreta). However, I wasn't so confident that the bombs and the bullets were made of copper.

What reason has convinced you to take the decision of returning their property instead of keeping it for you?

- Ooohhh what a silly question! Stealing is a crime, as God said. I only stole them because it was said that it was copper and I fucking love copper. Anyways, Christ doesn't want us to do illegal things, and I thought that the most correct thing to do was returning their properties to the Russian army.

What a very good act from your part, Fontalv- excuse me Benefolvan. We are so glad that you made that decision, and we thank you so much for talking with us.

A New Zoo in Spanish territory

A New Zoo has been inaugurated in Spain's homeland in Latin America. Thousands of animals have been put in cages to be exhibited, since a new business.

Large families will have a discount of 15% and relatives of determined and brave citizens who fought in the civil war on the national side, will also have a discount of 56%.

Bitcoin and cryptocurrency payment will not be allowed, but "pesetas" are going to be accepted.

We have the opportunity to talk with Jefferson Esteban, the director of the establishment.

- "Good evening mr. Esteban, congratulations for this new project, we are so excited for the inauguration day."

- "Thank you so much mrs. Fernandez"

- "First of all I would like to ask you what has inspired you to create this new establishment"

- "Well, our zoo is not a normal zoo, our animals are not the common animals that you can find in other business. They are exotic creatures that have been caged to attract people." - "We want justice for the Spanish, it is not fair that these animals live on our lands, after the sacrifice that Cristobal Colon had to make"

- "Thank you very much for your attention and good luck with the inauguration."

- "Thank you"

SPORTS

LA SIESTA BECOMES AN OLYMPIC GAME

MADRID- The traditional nap in Spain, is now recognized around the whole world as an Olympic Game. The next Olympics are in 2024 in France and this sport will be supported by all spanish people.

This Olympic game is individual and the representative person has to be Spanish with roots. This game will be played between 3 o'clock and 5 o'clock. If la siesta is not played after eating lunch the player will be eliminated. Also, the players have to sleep with a spanish blanket and if the blanket has a spanish flag you have extra points. The winner will receive the most incredible present that can ever exist: a bed. But not a simple bed, a bed made with penguin feathers. Spain has an amazing man who will do anything to win. We encourage all of our people to go to France when the time comes and support our country.

"I'm very excited to participate in this game because I have a lot of experience. When I was little I used to sleep every afternoon because I knew this day would come. La siesta has finally been recognized as a sport". David Bisbal said.

Here we have our beloved David Bisbal who will represent Spain.

2024 is far away but are you nervous to be part of this?

Nervous? why would I be nervous, this is what I do better. I'm the best at sleeping la siesta, it's my specialty.

What do you recommend to wear when someone wants to do la siesta?

I highly recommend pyjamas. The best thing is arriving home when I'm tired and then I change my clothes and put on my pyjamas. I have already chosen my pyjamas for the Olympics. It has very beautiful colours: red and yellow.

THE FIRST DIVISION BARÇAS WOMEN'S TEAM LOSES AGAINST 15 YEAR OLD BOYS

SEVILLA- This weekend the first division Barças women's team of basketball loses against Teruel's team of teenagers. 15 year old boys have won without any effort.

Barça's team is devastated and very tired. One of the players, Felipe, scored 100 points in the first 5 minutes and they gave him the medal of humiliation. The rest of the boy's team except Felipe that dunked on Maria (girl's captain team) and broke her leg, weren't playing at a 100% level.

Here we have Marcos, the captain of the boy's team.

Hello Marcos, how are you?

Very happy obviously. I'm proud of my team.

How do you think the match was?

I think it was actually really easy. All my partners have played amazing. That women's team was not strong or intelligent, they played without thinking. It was a disaster

WEATHER

THUNDER AND RAIN FOR REDS

Madrid- Recent studies show that the areas surrounding the republican spanish territory have permanent gray clouds over them. Not only do they stay on top of the villages, but they also follow the traitors wherever they go.

Pablo Iglesias was found trying to break our dear lord Franco's grave in "la valle de los caídos", but was found due to small tornadoes forming on his ponytail.

"We saw him trying to hit his grave with a hammer, but a lightning struck him before he could do anything", workers from the valley confess.

Weather forecast

Good evening, everyone, welcome to Box's excellent forecast produced by the best fascist experts. Tonight we will be showing you this week's weather.

As you all very well know, Spain is the world's best country, so its weather also has to be the best. Yet, of course, for all of the reds, the weather will be terrible, but that's because they are not considered a part of Spain.

To start off, we're going to talk about the weather in the north of Spain. In Galicia, Asturias, Cantabria, Navarra and Aragon (the border of the Spanish territory), the temperature will be slightly lower than last week. But, we could never talk badly about the north of Spain, because they are very loyal followers of our lord, Franco (god hail him). Unfortunately, Catalonia is also there, which means that the surrounding areas like Aragon and Valencia are destined to be devastated and cold because of the horrible catalans and their stupid beliefs. As you very well know, the bordering cities next to Catalonia are starting riots to kill all Catalans and to stop them from passing their ignorant genes to their future miserable children.

As for the south of Spain, Andalusia and Murcia will be slowly moving away from Morocco, because the great flow of water from the strait of Gibraltar will make the lands distance themselves thousands of kilometers. We all love them Oleee.

In the center of Spain, Castilla León, Aragón, Castilla la Mancha and Extremadura, the weather will be the same as last week but with more sun and summer temperatures. They are the second most important places because they are next to the great Madrid.

And for the most expected part of Spain... Madrid, with the greatest beaches, people, tourists, economy, food.. The temperature will be ideal and it will definitely be rated number 1 for the best tourist destination in the Spanish book of tourism. Madrid keeps us from falling into misery and it is the reason us Spanish people succeed in life.

And that's it for today's evening weather forecast, thank you for listening, long life the patriarchy and remember to always shout: Viva España!
